Communication Consulting Company

Company Profile 2024

Since its establishment in Yokohama, Japan in September 2021, Soaris has been serving primarily small and medium-sized Japanese companies aiming for overseas expansion. We provide services such as English training, negotiation, translation, and intellectual property management consulting. Leveraging this expertise, we serve as a liaison for overseas clients looking to enter the Japanese market.

Why Choose Us

We have a deep understanding of Western business culture, enabling us to bridge the gap with Japanese business culture.

With our broad network regionally in Japan and insight into the the business practices of small and medium-sized enterprises, we facilitate strong partnership.

Our Best Services

After interviewing clients and ascertaining their needs related to starting a business in Japan, we propose optimal solutions.

Marketing

We conduct precise, on-the-ground market research, freeing clients of the need to come to Japan before embarking on a business venture.

Negotiation

We negotiate both in English and Japanese, aiming for a win-win situation with the other party.

Translation

We specialize in translating contracts, promotional materials, intellectual property-related documents, and more.
